Prepare for Next Steps in Early Childhood Intervention and Education

The Maryland State Department of Education offers families the option to extend early intervention services through an Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) after a child reaches age 3 until the beginning of the school year following the child's fourth birthday. As part of this option, by age three, your family can choose to continue services through an IFSP. Children currently enrolled in a local Infants and Toddlers Program and who are found eligible for preschool special education and related services will have the opportunity to continue services through an IFSP or move to an Individualized Education Program (IEP).

About This Guide

A Family Guide To Next Steps: When Your Child In Early Intervention Turns 3 is part of Maryland's Birth to Kindergarten Parent Information Series, a collection of publications designed to support families in the statewide early intervention and education system of services in Maryland. To receive copies of this guide, or others in the series, contact your Local Infants and Toddlers Program. Refer to the back page of this guide for contact information.

	The IFSP includes an educational component to continue the child's school readiness skill development		Child receives preschool special education and related services to continue school readiness skill development
	At any time, you may choose to request termination of IFSP services and consider preschool special education and related services through an IEP. IFSP services continue until services through an IEP are scheduled to begin or until the beginning of the school year following the child's fourth birthday, whichever occurs sooner.		Once you make the choice (through written notification to the local Infants and Toddlers Program) to terminate services through an IFSP and pursue services through an IEP, the choice to return to services through an IFSP is no longer available.

To Help Your Family Choose Implementation of service delivery models and location of services vary through the local jurisdictions in Maryland. Your local Infants and Toddlers Program will support you in making the best choice that meets the needs of your child and family. The next pages provide a side-by-side look at the IFSP and IEP options.

In accordance with IDEA 2004, 20 U.S.C. sec.1435 and Code of Maryland Regulations 13A.13.01.09B(8)(a), parents are required to receive this Annual Notice of the Extended IFSP Option to assist in decision-making.

System of Payment

- Parents are not charged for services.
- Medicaid, with parental consent, may apply to health-related services and case management only.
- Private insurance, with parental consent, may apply to health-related services only for children who have both private insurance and Medicaid coverage. If denied by private insurance, Medicaid is billed. If paid by private insurance, in rare instances, parents are reimbursed costs.

Individualized Plan or Program

- An Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) means a written plan for providing early intervention supports and services to an eligible child and the child's family.
- The IFSP is reviewed at least every six months and the IFSP is revised at least annually by the IFSP team, which includes the child's parent.
- The IFSP includes family resources, priorities, and concerns, child's present levels of functional development, measurable child and family outcomes, and early intervention services.
- The IFSP specifically requires the designation of a service coordinator to ensure appropriate implementation and coordination of the plan across agencies with which the family is involved.
- The IFSP focuses on both the child and the family within their daily routines.

- An Individualized Education Program (IEP) means a written plan for providing special education and related services to a student with a disability.
- The IEP is developed, reviewed, and revised at least annually by an IEP team, which includes the child's parent.
- The IEP includes present levels of academic achievement and functional performance, measurable annual goals with benchmarks or short-term objectives, special education and related services and supplementary aids, program modifications and supports, and individual accommodations as necessary.
- The IEP focuses primarily on how the child's disability affects the child's participation in appropriate activities.

In accordance with IDEA 2004, 20 U.S.C. sec.1435 and Code of Maryland Regulations 13A.13.01.09B(8)(a), parents are required to receive this Annual Notice of the Extended IFSP Option to assist in decision-making.

Parent Consent

- The contents of the IFSP are fully explained to the parent and informed written consent from the parent is obtained before early intervention services described in the IFSP begin.
- If the parent does not provide consent with respect to a particular early intervention service, or if the parent withdraws consent after first providing it, that service may NOT be provided.
- Only the early intervention services to which parental consent is obtained are provided.

- A parent is required to consent for evaluation and the special education and related services within the child's IEP before services are provided.
- If, at any time after the initial provision of special education and related services, the parent revokes consent in writing for the continued provision of special education and related services, the public agency must terminate the provision of all services specified in the child's IEP.

Location of Services

Natural Environment

- Children are served in settings and activities that are natural within the home and community in which children without disabilities participate.
- IFSP services may be provided in a setting other than a natural environment only if early intervention and education cannot be achieved satisfactorily in a natural environment. A justification of the extent, if any, to which the services will not be provided in a natural environment is required and must be based on the needs of the child.

Examples of natural environments may include:

- Home
- Public or private community settings including but not limited to:
 - Public school preschool and pre-kindergarten programs
 - Private community preschool and pre-kindergarten programs
 - Head Start/Early Head Start
 - Judith Hoyer Center Partnerships
 - Child care centers
 - Family child care providers
 - Parks and recreation programs
 - Cooperative play groups
 - Libraries
 - Other child serving programs

Least Restrictive Environment

- To the maximum extent appropriate, students with disabilities, including students in public or private institutions or other care facilities, are educated with students who are not disabled; and
- Special classes, separate schooling, or other removal of students with disabilities from the regular educational environment occurs only when the nature or severity of the disability is such that education in regular classes with the use of supplementary aids and services cannot be achieved satisfactorily.

Examples of least restrictive environments may include:

- Home
- Public or private community settings including but not limited to:
 - Public school preschool and pre-kindergarten programs
 - Private community preschool and pre-kindergarten programs
 - Head Start/Early Head Start
 - Judith Hoyer Center Partnerships
 - Child care centers
 - Family child care providers
 - Parks and recreation programs
 - Cooperative play groups
 - Libraries
 - Other child serving programs
- Service provider location
- Public or private day school
- Public or private residential school
